

SCHOONER TRIVIA ANSWERS

How are Great Lakes schooners different from ocean going schooners?

The rigs were adapted to sail closer to the wind and were more easily maneuvered. The shape of the hull was boxy to accommodate the maximum amount of cargo and to travel in the canals (the Welland and the Soo)

From the 1860s on, many sailing vessels were converted to what kind of boat?

Schooner barges pulled by steam tugs.

What kind of boat replaced the Schooner for passenger travel on the great lakes in the late 1800's? Steamboats

Where was the original schooner Clipper City built? Manitowoc, Wisconsin

It is believed that the first American schooner was built where? Gloucester, Massachusetts in 1713

What was a nick name for a schooner? Fore and After

The group of large ships with masts are also called? Tall Ships-not all of them are schooners

How many modern-day schooners currently have ports on Grand Traverse Bay and can you name them?

5-Schooner Madeline, Schooner Manitou, Schooner Inland Seas, Schooner Utopia and Schooner Perception